Why? Because Jesus is Immanuel, God is with us. He is always with us. And not only is Jesus with us, He is for us.

Because Jesus is Immanuel, God is with us, the lonely can have hope. Because Jesus is with us, we can have hope in the confusion and chaos. Because Jesus is Immanuel, there is joy in sorrow. Because Jesus is with us, there is light in the darkness. Because Jesus is Immanuel, compassion overcomes condemnation, significance takes the place of shame, hospitality heals hurts, and love conquers the lies of hate.

Jesus is Immanuel, God is with us. Therefore we have a living hope. A hope that never fades, fails, or falters. Because Jesus is our strength, our hope is never frail.

We all need hope. Jesus is our hope.

From Adam

I need hope. You need hope. The church needs hope. Our communities and neighborhoods need hope. The world as a whole needs hope.

Jesus is our hope. He makes our hearts glad, our tongues rejoice, and allows us to rest in peace.
