From Adam

I love gifts. I'm sure you do too. Who doesn't, right? Can you remember a time when you received a costly gift of incredible worth? How did that make you feel? How did you respond?

A few years ago, a dear friend of mine gave me a truck so that Heather and I would have two vehicles to transport our increasingly busy family to its various points of destination. I was beyond humbled and grateful such a generous gift. I was overwhelmed by my friend's love and grace.

God wants us to be overwhelmed by the richness of his grace. He has lavished his grace upon us in innumerable ways. By his grace, he has done for us what we can never do for ourselves. By grace he has rescued us from sin. By grace he has empowered us to live transformed lives — meaningful and hopeful lives of love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, and self-control. By grace, we are led to a life that really works as we submit to the rule and reign of his grace — a life that enables to enjoy the abundant life now and share it with others through self-giving love.

Embrace God's grace. Enjoy God's grace. Embody God's grace.
