struggling with with what has just happened (Jesus' crucifixion and reports of his resurrection). Their faith is faint and their hopes have been shattered. When are faith is weak, our hope has been dimmed, and our lives have been broken, Jesus comes to us. He is Immanuel, God with us.

As I look at Jesus in the scriptures, I see the Savior, King, Redeemer, Liberator I, and others, have always needed. I see a Jesus that is welcoming and hospitable. A King that pursues people in their weakness and brokenness and offers healing and strength. I see a Savior that meets sinners where they are, accepts them for who they are and not for who they should be. I see a Redeemer that makes room for hurting people in his life with self-giving love and sacrifice.

The good news for you and me is that he is still the same Jesus. And he comes to us in the same way.

From Adam

In Luke 24 we read the story of Jesus finding two disillusioned and discouraged disciples walking along the road to Emmaus and talking about the resurrection. Luke tells us that while they were talking, Jesus "himself came up and walked with them" (Luke 24:15). I find it interesting that Jesus doesn't say to them, "Come unto me," or "Come follow me."
